

RIBA

Royal Institute of British Architects

Guidance Notes for Candidates

RIBA Vice-President Membership Election

Guidance Notes for Candidates in the RIBA Vice-President Membership Election

1. Introduction

Thank you for your interest in standing in the RIBA Vice-President Membership Elections. These notes are intended to provide practical information to assist you in the nomination and election process. The elections are administered under the RIBA Election Rules as published on our website, www.architecture.com/elections.

You are advised to familiarise yourself with the role description and all other guidance published by the Returning Officer at www.architecture.com/elections.

2. What we need from you

The following forms must be completed as part of the nomination process online:

- a. The nomination form and
- b. Declaration 1 - All Candidates must declare their willingness to serve on the RIBA Council for the term of office as set out below.
- c. Declaration 2 - It is RIBA policy that Council Members should declare material interests relevant to the RIBA business to prevent conflicts of interest or the perception of conflicts of interest arising.

If elected, Declaration 2 will be included in the RIBA Register of Interests, which is publicly available.

- d. Election Statement - This is your 'Election Statement'; the content is entirely up to you, with a limit of 300 words. For example, you could provide a C.V. or a manifesto or explain your vision for the future of architecture.

There are a few rules on content. Candidates may not make damaging or inaccurate remarks about other candidates or the RIBA. Should the contents of an election statement cause concern, the Returning Officer will decide whether the candidate must make amendments or whether to take any action.

- e. Photograph - You must email elections@riba.org an up-to-date and good-quality head and shoulders digital photograph of yourself. Full-figure or out-of-focus photos will not be accepted.

You must submit your nomination pack online using this link

3. Nominations

Once you have decided to stand, you must complete your nomination pack online for your candidacy to be valid.

Nomination packs can be submitted to the Returning Officer using this link between 09:00 on Wednesday, 3 May 2023 and 16:00 on Thursday, 18 May 2023.

All documents must be received by the deadline. The deadline is strictly and impartially enforced to be fair to all candidates. No new candidates will be accepted after the close of nominations.

4. Eligibility and nominations

You must be a current RIBA Chartered Member to be eligible to stand.

We encourage you to submit your nomination well before the deadline as late or incomplete nominations cannot be accepted.

5. Term of Office

The successful candidates will serve a two-year term from 1 September 2023.

6. The Balloting Process

If more than one candidate is nominated, a ballot will be held. This will be conducted online on behalf of the RIBA. The poll will open at 09:00 on Monday, 19 June 2023 and close at 16:00 on Friday, 30 June 2023. Members entitled to vote will be emailed a secure link to the RIBA voting website when the vote opens.

Voting will be by Single Transferable Vote method.

The election results will be published on our www.architecture.com/elections on Tuesday, 4 July 2023.

7. Conduct

During all stages of the election process, candidates will be expected to conduct themselves to the high standards of conduct we would expect of you if you became a RIBA Council Member. Under Rule 25 of the RIBA Elections Rules, there are Conduct and Social Media Guidelines to which you must adhere. You are asked to read those Guidelines and ensure that all your communications, including your election statement and social media, comply with them.

The Returning Officer can reprimand, caution or disqualify any candidates who breach the Conduct and Social Media Guidelines.

8. Campaigning

- a) Under RIBA Election Rule 26(a), you may campaign for your election from the day the Returning Officer confirms your nomination has been accepted until the close of the poll. Please note that you must not declare or publish yourself as a candidate or campaign for your election until you receive this confirmation.
 - a. Sponsorship - You may not accept commercial sponsorship to support your election campaign – but you may receive support from your practice or colleagues, subject as provided below. See Rule 26(d) of the RIBA Election Rules.
 - b. Election Expenses - You may not spend over £1,500 on your campaign. This includes third-party campaigning on your behalf.

9. After the election

Under Rule 26(e) of the RIBA Election Rules, within ten working days of the poll's close, candidates must submit a return of Declaration 3, setting out the amount of expenditure and donations received. Candidates must also confirm that they have complied with the campaigning rules and not used any money in the campaign which has come from a commercial source which could be interpreted as seeking advantage or influence.

If you require any further guidance or information or have any questions relating to any part of the election process, please email our elections team at elections@riba.org or telephone 020 7307 3603