to dedicate

RIBA at 66 Portland Place

If the restrictions placed on funeral services due to Covid-19 has meant you've not been able to celebrate your loved one with wider family and friends, you can do so in our central London venue, in your choice of one of our architecturally stunning event spaces.

Losing a loved one is a difficult and emotional process, and it can be hard to find a fitting way to celebrate their life and legacy. At RIBA at 66 Portland Place, we hope to take away the strain of organising a memorial or funeral wake by offering our full support to sensitively create a service that gives you and your close family and friends the chance to say goodbye to someone special and share fond memories.

Our dedicated team will work alongside you to personalise our Celebration of Life package, including a range of food and beverage options to suit your requirements, to create a meaningful occasion that gives you and your guests the opportunity to cherish and celebrate the life and legacy of a loved one.

Contact our team today by emailing venues@riba.org to discuss your plans for a memorial.
